BIRTHRIGHT ISRAEL

We have all heard about Taglit-Birthright Israel's awesome trips to Israel, but did you know there is more than one way to travel #ToIsraelNow? We know that who you travel with is just as important as what you see, so Young Judaea has partnered with the UJA to bring you more ways than ever to experience your free, 10-day trip to Israel. All you have to do is choose!

COJECCO/JCH Bensonhurst

A trip geared toward Young Professionals who are also part of the Russian Jewish Community in NYC, this is the perfect way to explore the land of Israel with peers who share your heritage, history, and language. You'll see and learn about the development of the Jewish country as a whole as well as gaining a greater insight towards the Russian community in Israel.

Repair the World/Hazon

There has never been a time that the world needed more of its youth to go out and participate in community service around the world. This trip focuses on just that. Centering on the theme of service and sustainability, participants will become involved with the communities they visit while also learning firsthand about Israel's history as a leader in the international service community since its inception. Perfect for anyone interested in policy and international development.

JDC Entwine/New Israel Fund

Join with young professionals from all over New York City on a trip that focuses on service learning and experiencing the minority communities within Israel. A socially conscious trip, you will see all of the worlds which make up Israel and be offered a view of a complex country during a complex time.

Mechon Hadar/Kehilat Jeshurun

Come and delve into the deep and historical roots of Judaism and religion in Israel! This trip will bring you through the modern state of Israel while also introducing you to the areas and lands that are referenced and revered throughout the Jewish scriptures. Perfect for anyone interested in experiencing the land they know so well from religious school or for anyone interested in exploring roots that they haven't yet unearthed.

LGBTQ

Israel is one of the only states in the Middle East to recognize its LGBTQ community and has made incredible strides in LGBTQ rights. Come and experience the progressive Middle Eastern state and learn what it really means to have Pride in your heritage, yourself and your country.

This Trip is a Gift of Taglit-Birthright Israel
