

Sample Journalism Internship Placements

Below is a sample list of recent journalism internship placements. Our internship options are not limited to this list and we will continue to explore options until you are excited about your placement.

Company	Description	Possible Internship Position
	i24 News is an international, 24 hour news station broadcasting in English, French, and Arabic.	Position Title: Economy Reporter Internship Description: The economy reporter will be involved in many aspects of the news production. They will pitch stories, create reports based off of footage from wire agencies, create VTRs (news packages/stories), gather footage, write scripts, etc. Requirements: Mastery of the English language, ability to keep up with current events.
	The Jerusalem Post, a broadsheet newspaper, is the leading news source for English-speaking Jewry since 1932.	Position Title: Writer and Editor Internship Description: Intern will write content for various Jerusalem Post teen magazines, including Click, Zone, and Street, as well as J Post Lite. Requirements: Excellent writing and editing skills, English language mother tongue.
	Haaretz is an online newspaper with a long history in Israel. It has emerged as one of the leading and most respected sources of accurate Israeli news in the international community.	Position Title: Editor Internship Description: The job consists primarily of moderating the Talkbacks section of the website. Additionally, the intern will be able to write their own articles for the paper. Requirements: English fluency, interest in current events.
	Hop! Media is a leading software group that specializes in creating original content experiences for children. Among other things, Hop! Media operates the television channels, Hop and Lully, aimed for children aged 2-8. The channel produces many original programs that have become milestones in the consciousness of the younger generation and has received high praise from parents and educators.	Position Title: International Department Intern Internship Description: Intern will work with the Digital and Acquisitions departments, helping with different Youtube channels and the daily needs of the Acquisitions department. The intern will perform various tasks towards the maintenance of the Youtube channels, make thumbnails for videos, and prepare items for translation. Requirements: Communications, Education, or film majors are preferred.