

Sample Communications Internship Placements

Below is a sample list of recent communications internship placements. Our internship options are not limited to this list and we will continue to explore options until you are excited about your placement.

Company	Description	Possible Internship Position
	Citrin Group is a strategic consultancy firm, specializing in strategic media consulting for business clients, crisis management, elections in organizations and ongoing media escort and support of various agencies. Citrin Group provides media consulting services to businesses and public entities, officials and liberal professionals, who seek to reach a specific target audience.	Position Title: Public Relations Intern Internship Description: The intern will establish and develop various databases: a media database (newspapers, journalists, websites and electronic media) in North America, a database of potential customers, PR and lobbying firms in North America. They will also prepare and distribute press releases for the foreign press in Israel and abroad, keep up ongoing correspondence with various organizations abroad, and liaison with English-speaking Israeli officials. Requirements: Excellent communication skills, outgoing and persistent personality.
	The Israel Tennis Center (ITC), a non-profit organization, has worked for 35 years to enhance the social, psychological, and physical development of Israeli youth through the medium of sport. The center provides a healthy and structured environment for children from all walks of life, teach values of cooperation, self reliance and persistence, and provide opportunities for every child to reach his or her own level of excellence.	Position Title: PR, Communication and Marketing Intern Internship Description: The intern will write all the English articles, take pictures during tournaments, presentations, ceremonies, and other events, edit all pictures (including cutting and formatting), maintain the Israel Tennis Center's social media presence, translate documents from Hebrew to English, and create an archives section on the website. Requirements: Passion for sports, healthy lifestyles, and serving underprivileged youth. English fluency. Communication skills.
	Beit Hatfutsot, the Museum of the Jewish People, is more than a museum. This unique global institution tells the ongoing and extraordinary story of the Jewish people. Beit Hatfutsot connects Jewish people to their roots and strengthens their personal and collective Jewish identity. Beit Hatfutsot conveys to the world the fascinating narrative of the Jewish people and the essence of the Jewish culture, faith, purpose and deed while presenting the contribution of world Jewry to humanity.	Position Title: International Intern Internship Description: The intern will have a variety of duties in the museum, from recruiting worldwide Jewish institutions in participating in Beit Hatfutsot's programs, organizing participant data, communication with and assisting the participants and preparing for the My Family Story annual event. The intern assists with the logistics and receipt and return of the art installations and with the My Family Story ceremony. In 2015, 25 different countries and 20,000 students participated. The ceremony was beamed globally via live-stream to all of the participants' communities. Requirements: High level of organization and communication. Attention to detail.

The Suzanne Dellal Centre for Dance and Theatre is the home of dance in Israel and the premier presenter of Israeli and international contemporary dance companies. The mission of the Suzanne Dellal Centre is to cultivate, support and promote the art of contemporary dance in Israel. The Centre pursues this mission by offering a variety of events, festivals, and workshops across artistic disciplines, ensuring that dance stays in close relationship with all art forms. The Centre hosts courses for dancers and choreographers, as well as lectures by renowned artists.

Position Title: Foreign Relations Intern

Internship Description: The intern will be in charge of bringing companies from around the world to perform at the centre. The intern will also work on the logistics for bringing the centre's company to festivals around the world.

Requirements: Looking for someone who is highly organized, who pays attention to detail, and has a passion for the performing arts.

Noga Gallery of Contemporary Art

The Noga Gallery of Contemporary Art was established in 1994, designed for ground-breaking artists working across media. The gallery maintains an ambitious program of exhibitions by Israeli and international artists, introducing and supporting artists at earlier stages in their career, who work in the media of performance, painting, photography, film, video art and installation.

Position Title: Marketing Intern

Internship Description: Intern will manage all social networks, including Facebook, Instagram, Twitter and LinkedIn. They will also contact contemporary art blogs and journals in Israel and abroad, as well as help set up exhibitions and attend openings.

Requirements: Bachelor's degree in art, art history, communications, or marketing is desired. Passion for arts is required.

Zalul ("clear", in Hebrew) is one of Israel's leading environmental NGOs, dedicated to protecting the seas and rivers of Israel. Zalul accomplishes its mission through conservation, activism, research, awareness-raising, and education. It challenges Israel's existing power structure and strives to bring the issues of water preservation and environmental protection to the forefront of the Israeli public.

Position title: Communications Intern

Internship Description: Intern will be responsible for updating Zalul's English blog, help with any articles/pieces that have been loosely translated into English, build the Facebook fan page. Intern will also help with any other communications-based work needed for Zalul in English.

Requirements: Mother-tongue fluency in English is required. Passion for protecting the environment is also required.