

FAQ Young Judaea Midwest Winter Convention

When and Where is Midwest Winter Convention?

December 5th-8th, 2019. Camp Henry Horner/Nageela Midwest, Ingleside, IL (same location as previously, the camp is under new ownership)

Who is eligible to come to Midwest Winter Convention?

All Jewish teens, grades 8-12, who are interested in becoming more involved in Young Judaea, learning about Israel and being together for Shabbat. Like all Young Judaea programming, the weekend will be planned by our regional Mazkirut (youth board) along with their advisors and the madrichim (counselors). The program will include fun and engaging activities relating to Israel, Jewish Identity and Tikkun Olam (changing the world).

How much does Midwest Winter Convention cost?

The convention fee for the teens flying to convention is $275 + travel. The fee for those not flying is $325. This was done to help equalize the amount that teens from around the Midwest need to pay for convention. If the participant needs transportation to the convention and is not flying there will be a $30 bus fee for both ways and $20 for one way. You can pay for this on the registration site. FLIGHTS ARE NOT INCLUDED IN THE PRICE.

I can only find flights that arrive after or depart before/after the times you listed. Can I still take them?

Unfortunately we cannot offer that much leeway on this, the Midwest Winter Convention schedule is precise and our time is extremely limited. Flights must arrive at the prescribed times. We simply will not have drivers and vehicles to cater to those who travel outside of the parameters listed. Additionally, if a participant tries to book a flight that departs before our suggested departure time, they will not make their flight. If your flight arrives earlier than our staff can be at the airport or departs later, you are permitted to wait alone at the airport if your parent/guardian gives permission.

What should I do if I am flying as an unaccompanied minor to Convention? Will there be someone to pick me up?

Please make sure to check with your airline provider what their specific rules and regulations are for flying as an unaccompanied minor. Each airline has a different procedure and some charge fees for this service. Once you check these rules with your airline, please contact us at yiconvention@youngjudaee.org so we can provide you with the information needed for the airline of our staff member who will be escorting you from the gate to baggage claim. If there is a fee from the airline, that fee must be covered by the parents or guardians of the participants. To be considered an unaccompanied minor, your airline must have on record our staff member's information.

What are the travel guidelines if I am driving to and from Convention?

Participants under 18 are encouraged NOT to drive themselves to convention. This is contrary to Young Judaea policy and anyone driving to convention must be dropped off and picked up by a parent or guardian. However, seasoned drivers are permitted to drive themselves and other teens with permission from parents (please fill out THIS form (Word) if you are either driving yourself or being driven by another teen and send to yjconvention@youngjudaesa.org)

If you live locally, we are providing a bus from Midway, O'Hare, and Northbrook Court to and from convention, which can help alleviate some of the travel time for individual parent/guardians. The charge for taking the bus is $20 for one direction or $30 for both. This fee does not apply to those taking flights. For more information on the bus from the airports please contact yjconvention@youngjudaesa.org or see above section "What are the travel guidelines?"

What are the travel guidelines if I would like my parents/guardians to drop me off and pick me up at Camp Henry Horner/Nageela Midwest?

Participants may be dropped off and picked up at Henry Horner/Nageela Midwest by their parents/guardians. If you are being driven to Convention, please plan to arrive at 8pm on Thursday, December 5th. If you are being picked up at Convention on Sunday, December 8th, please plan to depart at 9am. To ensure the safety of our participants, while parents are welcomed to drive participants to/from convention, participants are NOT encouraged to drive to/from Convention themselves. However, if you do choose to do this, fill out the form in the section above.
