

Job Description: Marketing and Communications Intern

Background

Young Judaea Global is seeking a motivated and energetic graduate student to serve as a Fall/Winter Communications intern! The intern will assist staff on Marketing and Communications initiatives including curating social media content including the designing of graphics, writing of copy, development of marketing collateral, assisting in email campaigns, and organization and clean-up of email platforms.

This is an excellent opportunity to learn first-hand about non-profit communications and gain valuable experience with a leading Jewish youth organization.

Qualifications

- Graduate school student
- Passion for and knowledge of Young Judaea a plus
- Knowledge of Jewish community a plus

Skills Required

- Must have strong understanding of Facebook and Instagram
- Competency in Canva for designing and editing engaging marketing materials (Adobe Design Suite a Plus)
- A working knowledge of Constant Contact email platform
- Knowledge of WordPress a plus
- Strong organizational and time management skills and attention to detail
- Team player with a demonstrated ability to initiate and maintain effective and cooperative professional relationships.
- Creativity, problem-solving skills, and enthusiasm for learning.
- Strong writing and communication skills.

Job type: This is a part-time fully remote position, with a commitment of approximately 10-15 hours per week.

Compensation: $5,000 and skill building and experience in non-profit communications.

Internship Dates

• Start Date in September through January. The exact dates of the internship are flexible. Option to continue past Winter.

Please send resumes and design samples to hannah.lane@youngjudaea.org by September 5th.

Only relevant candidates will be contacted.